

COMMISSION SCORES POINT IMPORTANCE

Recent Decision of Supreme Court of United States Will Be Far-Reaching.

WILL NOT OPPRESS ANY ONE

Chairman McNeil Says It Is Disposition of Commission to See That Justice Is Done All.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 30.—Chairman Franklin McNeil, of the Corporation Commission, expressed himself as much pleased with the outcome of the famous "Selma Connection" case (Atlantic Coast Line vs. Corporation Commission) just decided in favor of the commission by the United States Supreme Court. Although he has not had an opportunity of reading the whole opinion, the newspaper reports of it seem to indicate that the commission has gained about all it was contending for in the litigation, and that the final settlement of this question of the authority of the commission will go a long way toward facilitating the work of the commission. The commission, he declared, will at all times strive to exercise these conceded powers on a strict basis of justice as between the interests of the traveling public and the railroads, there being no desire whatever to work any undue hardship on the railroad companies, and at the same time an earnest effort will be made to safeguard the interests of the people of the State.

Railroads to Contest.

The impression prevails here pretty generally that the railroad companies will contest the application of the act of the recent Legislature reducing passenger rates from 3 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents per mile, although no official announcement has been made to that effect. It is pointed out that already an announcement is made by the seaboard Air Line that the two-cent rate just promulgated in Virginia will be resisted, and litigation is also on by the Southern and other roads in Alabama against the one-half-cent rate and in North Carolina. The litigation in North Carolina will probably come in the shape of a proceeding against the Corporation Commission to restrain it from the ministerial act incumbent on it in connection with putting into operation the new reduced rate law July 1st. HAVE NEW LAUNDRY.

Stock Company Being Formed to Meet Advance in Prices.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., April 30.—The recent twenty-five per cent advance in the charges of the three laundries in Raleigh is bringing about the organization of a new stock company to operate a new laundry at the old rates. Already about three hundred citizens have subscribed to the stock, the aggregate being over $3,000. The stock is payable when $2,500 is subscribed, so that the new laundry is practically assured. It is generally conceded that the advance here is the direct outcome of the State convention of laundries held here several weeks ago, and that the advance is part of a plan for higher rates in practically all of the towns of the State. A look now like the advance in Raleigh will be followed.

APPROACHING A CRISIS.

Fear of Uprising Which Administration Can Hardly Control.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—Ambassador Creel, of Mexico, and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon today conferred at length concerning the situation in Guatemala. Advice received in Washington and Mexico City agree on the point that affairs are approaching a crisis in Guatemala, and any moment there may be an uprising which the present administration there will be unable to control.

FATHER WAS SHOT BY MME. DE MASSEY

Dr. Simon So Declares in Closing Prosecution's Side of Murder Case.

PERJURY, SAYS THE DEFENSE

Attorney for Woman on Trial Says Witnesses for State Have Sworn Falsely.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The unauthorized visit of George W. Guernsey, one of the jurors in the case of Anissa de Massey, who is charged with killing Gustav Simon, to the building where the shooting occurred, only served to delay the trial for a short time to-day.

Justice Blanchard called Guernsey into his chambers and after a brief talk with him directed that the entire jury be taken to the building and be allowed to inspect the stairway which Guernsey had already inspected. Attorneys for both sides, defense and prosecution accompanied the jurors, but the defendant waived her right to be present.

Said Woman Shot Him.

Soon after court reconvened, the prosecution rested, and the defense opened its case. The taking of the defense's testimony will begin to-morrow. After the return of the jurors the trial was resumed. Dr. Carlton Simon, son of the dead man, was the first and most important witness for the prosecution. He said he saw his father at the shop soon after he was shot. Mr. Simon stated that he was mortally injured, and knew he was going to die. Dr. Simon said: "I asked him who had shot him, and he replied, 'a new designer, Mme. de Massey, shot me. I employed her about a week ago, and she left me of her own accord Friday. She came back about 2 o'clock to-day for her money. I told her to return at 5:30, the regular pay-time, but she refused to leave the office. She raised such a rumpus in the office that I asked her to go again, calling the elevator man. She refused to go by elevator, and she left me and hardly gone when she returned by the iron door and began pounding it. I let her pound about ten minutes, and then going to the door, told her if she did not go away I would call the police and get her arrested. With that she shot me." There was no one else present at this examination, Dr. Simon said, on cross-examination.

Perjured Testimony.

Attorney Lebarber opened the case for the defense. He said the testimony produced by the State was much of it perjured, and that he would show that Mrs. de Massey had no quarrel with Mr. Simon, and that she was not seen on the stairs after the shooting, but on the street corner waiting for a car when she heard the shooting. He also said he would show that there was never any identification of Mrs. de Massey by Mr. Simon after the shooting. During her attorney's address, Mrs. de Massey, for the first time since the trial began, broke down and wept. When court adjourned she appeared on the verge of collapse, and had to be assisted back to the Tombs.

Brandt Gets Good Majority.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 30.—In the city Democratic primary to-day for Mayor, Brandt got 250 majority over Murphy, who was specially championed by the leaders of the prohibition party, and who elected Murphy two years ago. Intemperate attacks on Brandt by this element gave him the fine and strong support of prohibitionists coming to his support.

LASSITUDE.

Many of those who at this season of the year experience a feeling of lassitude attribute it to the fact that it is Spring, whereas the season itself is by no means the cause of the sensation. This, more often than not, say physicians, is due to the fact that the human system reaches a point in the Spring season when a thorough "cleaning up" is needed. The machinery of the body needs going over once in a while, just as does that of a factory. Neglected, the bodily functions become deranged, and one of the most common manifestations of this is constipation. This, especially in its chronic form, means that certain muscles of the body are not in condition to do their work properly, having become weak and inelastic. To overcome this condition is to cure constipation—not simply give relief to the sufferer—and for this purpose medical men of experience are using with great success a combination of 1-2 oz. Fluid Extract of Senna, 1-2 oz. Rochelle salts, 1 oz. Anise Syrup, 30 grains of Carbonyl of Soda, 1-2 oz. water and 11-2 ozs. Glycerine. Of this a teaspoonful is administered at bedtime and before each meal, and this is continued until there is free movement of the bowels. Any good pharmacist can put up the preparation.

SMALLPOX SPREADING.

Two New Cases in Spencer, Making Five in All.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SPENCER, N. C., April 30.—Two new cases of smallpox were discovered in and near Spencer to-day, making a total of five since Saturday, when the disease first broke out. All patients are doing well. A general spread of the malady is not feared. The county officials are experiencing some difficulty in forcing compulsory vaccination, which was ordered yesterday.
